

Port of Oakland
Oakland, California

Director of Utilities

Salary: $270,000 to $305,000 (progression through the salary range is based on performance)

Filing deadline: Monday, September 30, 2024.

JOIN THE PORT OF OAKLAND AS ITS FIRST DIRECTOR OF UTILITIES

As the Director of Utilities, you will be at the helm of an essential division that powers the Port of Oakland's expansive operations. You will lead the transition of utilities to the Port, manage complex energy systems including microgrids and battery storage, and drive forward environmental initiatives like solar energy projects and maintaining the Port's hydrogen fueling stations. This role is not just about managing utilities; it's about shaping the future of energy and sustainability at the Port of Oakland.

What Can the Port of Oakland Offer You?

- Competitive Salary: $270,000 - $305,000 annually, based on performance.
- Exceptional Benefits: Including CalPERS pension, retiree medical benefits, comprehensive health coverage, and a robust work-life balance program.
- Innovative Projects: Use your knowledge and experience in the POU industry and be at the forefront of cutting-edge energy solutions and infrastructure development.
- Leadership Opportunity: Manage and grow a talented team of professionals.
- Extensive Impact: The paperwork is filed, the new rates adopted, the Port of Oakland is ready to build the Utilities Division. The success of this division will be far-reaching in its impact on the activities of the airport, seaport, and commercial real estate, all they need is you!
